Bradgate Treasure Hunt.

Take a virtual trip around Leicestershire and beyond.

Answer the questions from the clues provided, some are cryptic and find the answers to famous sights and attractions?

	Question	Answer	Points
1	We start off from the 'The Linford' and head in a North-westerly direction to a National Trust property in a settlement where there are a small group of cottages designed in the Arts and Crafts style. Name the property. (1 pt.)
2	Heading off in the same direction we decide to visit a local market town. Now in ruins, the castle appears in Sir Walter Scott's medieval novel. Name the town and the novel. (2 pts.)
3	We now head North to one of our counties largest reservoirs which has supplied Leicester with its water supply since 1964. Name the reservoir (1 pt.)
4	We decide to leave and head South towards Coalville where we stumble across an old 13 th century stone built house whose owners had links to the Gunpowder Plot of 1605. It remains untouched since its refurbishment when all the mod cons of the day were fitted in 1618. Where are we? (1 pt.)
5	Heading off to the East to our next sight, we discover the highest place in Leicestershire. Fortunately, it is a remarkably clear day so we can see a Cathedral almost fifty miles away. Where are we and where is the Cathedral? (2 pts.)
6	Heading Southeast we find a fashion retailers HQ. This company was founded in 1864, trading as Joseph Hepworth & Son. Where are we and name the retailer? (2 pts)
7	Back up north in the county, we treat ourselves to a slap up meal at "John's House" a local Michelin starred restaurant. Located in this village it sounds as though they have herbs growing on a hill! Name the village. (1 pt.)
8	Back on the road, we discover a Rural Centre just off the A6 in a small hamlet only a few miles south of Leicester. A spell of shopping, a visit to the garden centre and a bite to eat, you are amazed at what they have across the road. Where are we and what is amazing? (2 pts.)
9	We decide to leave Leicestershire and head out of our county, bucket and spade in hand, we find a Jolly Fisherman who tells us that "it's so bracing"! Where are we and what colour scarf is he wearing? (2 pts)
10	Heading back towards home. Just relax and watch the box! You do have a TV, don't you? Sky or Virgin?.....NO! So, you must be on Freeview then! Do you know where your TV programmes come from? (1 pt.)
